- a) Sample answer:

I would use:

- Apakah Ibu suka...?
- Apakah Pak (nama) suka...?
- Apakah Anda suka...?

I would use these questions because they are all the polite form.

- b) They would probably feel a little shocked. However, Indonesians would understand that a foreigner is still probably learning their language and would forgive such an error. They may ignore it or they may even quietly and kindly tell you what is more appropriate.

On the other hand, if an Indonesian child should say kamu to an adult, the Indonesian adult would probably think the child is lacking in good manners.
