

A blog

Exercise

1. In this module you read Peter and Anna's blog from Jakarta. Now it's your turn to write one about some other places in Jakarta.

Begin your blog with a greeting and a sentence saying where you are. Then write entries of a few sentences in which you describe each of the places below. Say when you visited each place.

In your entries, use language you learnt in the previous seven modules as well as language from Worksheet One of this module.
